Built in 1951, 593 Banks Street is a two bedroom, one bathroom semi-detached single family home with a one car parking garage and ample street parking, situated on a corner lot. You will love this home for its desirable Bernal Heights location, natural light, outdoor spaces, and upgrades like fresh paint, new fixtures, solid wood flooring and finishings throughout.

You're just over the hill from Bernal Village, where you will find a grocery store, specialty food stores, destination restaurants, coffee shops, a yoga studio, and a public library.
